

Health and Wellbeing

Our School Offer

The levels of support and provision offered at Castle Hill Infants School

Health, wellbeing and emotional support:

Whole school approaches The universal offer to all children 	Additional, targeted support and provision 	Specialist, individualised support and provision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• All staff are first aid trained</li> <li>• Every year group has a paediatric trained first aider</li> <li>• All playtimes are attended with First Aid resources</li> <li>• Children experience regular PSHE / Circle time sessions</li> <li>• Children receive two weekly PE session</li> <li>• All children receive a healthy snack each day and Reception children receive milk</li> <li>• A multisport afterschool club is available</li> <li>• Reception receive screening from the School Nurse and Dentist</li> <li>• Regular hand-washing is promoted;</li> <li>• Rights Respecting is promoted throughout school and in classrooms within lessons;</li> <li>• Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural aspects of learning are promoted in lessons;</li> <li>• Medicine safety is taught;</li> <li>• Building Learning Power is promoted</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children can be referred to nurture therapy</li> <li>• Children can be referred to play therapy</li> <li>• Play / role play is promoted and modelled in class</li> <li>• Children in Reception Classes can receive 'Feelings Interventions' to enable them to talk about their feelings</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children can be supported 1:1 with their area of need</li> <li>• Staff are trained in who to best support identified needs for individual children and all staff are trained to be consistent</li> <li>• Children can be referred to receive the support of Common Assessment Framework (CAF)</li> </ul> to build reciprocity (team working), reflectiveness, resilience and resourcefulness.

--	--	--