

Social Interaction

Our School Offer

The levels of support and provision offered at Castle Hill Infants School

Social interaction opportunities:

Whole school approaches The universal offer to all children 	Additional, targeted support and provision 	Specialist, individualised support and provision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reception classes play in their outside area at lunch times and can then choose the main playground in the summer term • All children in Year 1 and 2 access the main playground and mix with each other in their play • The quiet room and computer club is run at lunch times for children to choose if they do not want to play on the playground that day • After school clubs are open to all children • Our school Sports Ambassador promotes games and sports skills on the playground every lunch time • Children are supported to work in groups and build group working skills • Children have regular opportunities for 'Trio of Talking' in curriculum directed time • Every class has a council member who reports the school council minutes in class assemblies • Children are enabled to contribute to circle time sessions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An additional Midday Supervisor Assistant (MDSA) assists in the hall and on the playground at lunchtimes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reception classes play in their outside area at lunch times and can then choose the main playground in the summer term • All children in Year 1 and 2 access the main playground and mix with each other in their play • The quiet room and computer club is run at lunch times for children to choose if they do not want to play on the playground that day • After school clubs are open to all children • Our school Sports Ambassador promotes games and sports skills on the playground every lunch time • Children are supported to work in groups and build group working skills • Children have regular opportunities for 'Trio of Talking' in curriculum directed time • Every class has a council

		member who reports the school council minutes in class assemblies <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Children are enabled to contribute to circle time sessions
--	--	---