

The curriculum

Our School Offer

The levels of support and provision offered at Castle Hill Infants School

The Curriculum:

Whole school approaches The universal offer to all children 	Additional, targeted support and provision 	Specialist, individualised support and provision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Themes of learning, following the curriculum is child led • Creative curriculum • A world focus, ECO awareness is applied to teaching • A child led school council meets regularly with report in class assemblies • Children's work and teachers marking of work is scrutinised for excellence every term • Staff subject leaders monitor and report for excellence of learning • Children's achievements and attainment are reported to parents termly • Ambitious learning targets are set for every child • Children's attainment is tracked every half term by class teachers • The process of "Assess, Plan, Do, Review" is continued throughout every term 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Curriculum based interventions are given to children by trained teaching assistants who need to make an improved rate of progress • Children's achievement of the curriculum is monitored regularly by trained teaching assistant and assessed termly by the SENCO – "Assess, Plan, Do, Review" 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Referrals are made to outside agencies i.e. SALT, EP, OT • An individualised curriculum and approach to learning is delivered • Individualised objectives / targets